

Pull out and keep guide to the NUT CPD programme 2007/08

“Excellent approach – so relevant and different from LEA/DfES CPD. This will make a difference in our school.”

primary headteacher, London

“Good to be able to discuss issues with colleagues from other settings and LAs.”

senco/deputy headteacher, primary, Essex

“Positive opportunity to work as a pair and develop professionally.”

secondary NQTs, Wales

“Very valuable think-tank for different approaches. My confidence improved to trial new ideas.”

secondary teacher, Kent

Eight things to know

- Best behaviour: NUT provides the most coherent and targeted mix of behaviour management CPD available to teachers. Identify the support most appropriate to you using the career map on page 3.
- Inclusive: NUT CPD is open to all teachers in England and Wales – working together, learning together!
- High quality: We are happy to be measured against both our research-based hallmarks and the DfES’s Code of Practice Good Value CPD.
- Evolutionary: Innovative, teacher-driven opportunities and support for changing expectations – such as the new professional standards.
- Expertise: Our independent tutors are experts in their fields, with track-records of working effectively with teachers.
- Affordable: Participation costs are kept low. ‘Core’ behaviour programmes remain free to NUT members during 2007/08. For all CPD at Stoke Rochford, members can reclaim travel expenses.
- Professional recognition: The GTC’s Teacher Learning Academy (Stage 1) is readily attainable to NUT CPD participants who are teachers in England. Eligible for GTC (W) CPD grants in Wales.
- Venues: Stoke Rochford Hall (free parking and easy access from A1; free taxi to/from Grantham station); NUT headquarters in London (close to Kings Cross, Euston and St Pancras stations); plus top quality venues throughout England and Wales.

(See page 4 for dates during 2007/08)

Core

Extension

Start right – classroom organisation and behaviour

One-day, regionally located seminars in July, free to all just-qualifying teachers.
"Focusing on new teachers' first months in the classroom." – Steve Sinnott

Start and early career

NQTs – getting behaviour right

Overnight seminar⁽¹⁾ during NQTs' second term. Held at Stoke Rochford.
"Reinforced existing learning strategies, made me reflective and gave new ideas."

Improving classroom behaviour

Overnight seminar⁽¹⁾ for teachers completing or recently completed graduate or registered teacher training. Held at Stoke Rochford.
"A range of approaches to ensure all the sessions were engaging. The tutors listened emphatically to our needs and responded with practical suggestions and theoretical back-up."

Early career teachers

(Teachers in second to fifth years of teaching)

Improving behaviour for learning

Teach'n'Chat – two-day initial seminar plus one day follow-up⁽²⁾, with bulletin board 'chatroom' in between.
"The format was really good – especially the support between the two seminars via the chatroom."

Supply teachers – managing classroom behaviour

Overnight seminar^(1R) in different regional locations each school year.
"Very practical in content from a very knowledgeable tutor."

Making effective interventions in pupil behaviour – Rob Long teacherstogether^(2R) in different regional locations during each school year.

"Being able to attend with a colleague is good. Mixture of primary/secondary works. Cosy atmosphere. Lots of laughs. Loads of ideas to try."

Mid-career

Leading behaviour improvement – Rob Long teacherstogether⁽²⁾ at Stoke Rochford for headteachers, leadership group and/or senior teachers with responsibility for behaviour improvement across schools and supporting/developing other teachers' behaviour strategies.

"Sessions were expertly run and pace made the day go quickly. Tired bodies and minds were re-enthused!"

Senior teachers, leaders and behaviour specialists

Restorative approaches to conflict and 'bad' behaviour

Tutors: Paul Howard and Helen Kenward
teacherstogether⁽²⁾ at Stoke Rochford
"Excellent – I believe that it can make a real difference to my school."

ECM – Working with other agencies to improve behaviour for learning

Tutors: Pete Hrekow and John Parrott
 Overnight seminar⁽¹⁾ at Stoke Rochford.

Using transactional analysis

Tutor: Giles Barrow
teacherstogether⁽²⁾ at Stoke Rochford
"Very enjoyable delivery of some complex information – great course, great content."

- (1) Overnight seminars ('twenty-fours') start at 11am on day one and finish at 2.45pm on day two. Free accommodation on day one.
- (1R) 9.30am – 3.30pm each day, no accommodation.
