Unions unite in defence of pensions

The NUT and all other UK teachers' unions have joined together to reject the Government's proposed changes to teachers' pensions.

The unions have published a joint leaflet making the case against unnecessary changes and calling upon members to support their campaigns to defend pensions. Ask your school rep for a copy.

Use the joint union leaflet in discussions with your colleagues in school. Make sure you attend the NUT pension roadshows and take your colleagues. Attend the TUC demonstration in London on Saturday 26 March.

Go to www.teachers.org.uk/pensions for dates and venues of pension roadshow meetings.
You can also email your MP from that page.

Christine Blower, General Secretary of the National Union of Teachers, said:

"Now, more than ever, it is vital that we all work together to defend our pensions. Together we are stronger."

Our aim – one union for all teachers
