

TEACHERS AND OTHER PRACTITIONERS IN THE NURSERY/EARLY YEARS/YEAR 1

ARE INVITED TO APPLY FOR

‘COME RAIN, COME SHINE’ OUTDOOR PLAY IN THE FOUNDATION STAGE (TF/102)

TUTORS: Sally Atkinson and Gill Roberts from Peterborough Early Years and Childcare Team

VENUE: Cardiff, Wales (TBC)

DATES: Thursday, 24 and Friday, 25 May 2012

DETAILS: Non-residential (Participants with more than 1½ hour journey will be able to request accommodation, without additional charge, on Thursday, 24 May)
(please read carefully)

9.30 a.m. to 4.00 p.m. on both days.

Note: This course will be repeated TF/99 at Stoke Rochford Hall, near Grantham on 15/16 May and applicants are advised to attend the most local venue to their residence.

AIMS: The course will focus on:

- Placing children at the centre of outdoor provision with reference to the EYFS.
- How to make full use of your own environment through reflection and discussion.
- The importance of risk and challenge.
- Exploring the world around us through first hand experiences.

Please bring: EYFS documents and outdoor clothing (waterproofs and stout footwear) – we go ‘outside’ whatever the weather.

COST: £50 to NUT members; £125 (others). OPTIONAL dinner with B & B on 24 May can be requested in advance (on application form) by participants with more 1 ½ hour journey to/from the venue.

NUT members pay up to the first £30 of their travel costs and can reclaim any amount in excess of that (with receipts or mileage up to a maximum of the equivalent of 2nd class rail fare). The Union cannot pay for supply cover – costs are eligible for funding from professional development (CPD) funding, which is delegated to schools.

THE NUT'S CPD PROGRAMME
MEETING TEACHERS' LEARNING AND CAREER NEEDS

