

MID-CAREER (NORMALLY 6-20 YEARS EXPERIENCE)
PRIMARY/SECONDARY CLASSROOM TEACHERS WITHIN 1½ HOUR JOURNEY TO/FROM THE VENUE

ARE INVITED TO APPLY FOR THIS TWO-DAY CPD SEMINAR

‘MAKING EFFECTIVE INTERVENTIONS IN PUPIL BEHAVIOUR IN CLASSROOMS’

“The first course I have attended where I have not once looked at the clock.”

TUTOR: ROB LONG, Education Works

TF/87R The Hickstead Hotel, Jobs Lane, Bolney, Thursday, 1 and Friday, 2 December 2011
Hickstead (nr Haywards Heath), West
Sussex, RH17 5NZ

TF/90R Birmingham (venue TBC) Thursday, 1 and Friday, 2 March 2012

(9.30 a.m. to 4.00 p.m. on both days)

AIMS: To provide mid-career teachers within 1½ hour journey to/from venue with an opportunity to review and update their practical approaches and strategies for managing troublesome pupil behaviour in the classroom and their understanding and support for troubled learners.

A range of models for understanding classroom behaviour will be explored. Participants will get the opportunity to review and discuss with the tutor and other mid-career teachers strategies for improving behaviour.

CERTIFICATION: All participants will receive a personalised NUT CPD participation certificate.

COST: £25 (NUT members); £175 (others) – includes VAT, lunches and refreshments.
OPTIONAL dinner and B&B (£50) at end of first day can be requested in advance. No travel costs can be reclaimed.

THE NUT's CPD PROGRAMME
MEETING TEACHERS' LEARNING AND CAREER NEEDS

