

TEACHERS ON (OR WHO HAVE RECENTLY COMPLETED) GRADUATE OR REGISTERED (PLUS 'TEACH FIRST' OR OTHER EMPLOYMENT-BASED) TEACHER TRAINING PROGRAMMES

ARE INVITED TO APPLY FOR

'IMPROVING BEHAVIOUR IN THE CLASSROOM' (GRTP) (TF/91)

*"The course made a huge difference", "Lots of ideas to actually apply and enjoyable too"
(Previous GRTP participants)*

TUTORS: Paul Howard and Pete Hrekow, Dreyfus Training

VENUE: Stoke Rochford, NUT's Education and Training Centre, nr Grantham, Lincolnshire
(Free taxi from/to Grantham station can be requested in advance (15 minute journey); easy access A1 and free parking)

DATES: Wednesday, 29 February and Thursday, 1 March 2012

Course starts at 11.00 a.m. on 29 February and finishes at 2.45 p.m. on 1 March.

AIMS: The course will focus on:

- Auditing teaching skills for effective learning;
- Managing behaviour – teachers and pupils;
- Behaviour and learning;
  - Learning styles – implications for behaviour;
  - Developing teaching styles and resources to improve behaviour;
- Exploring behaviour;
  - Behaviour and relationships;
  - Assessing behaviour and finding solutions.

COST: FREE to NUT members; £150 (others). Includes VAT, meals and refreshments plus dinner with B & B on 29 February.

NUT members will be able to claim their travel expenses (receipts must be provided except for car travel which will be reimbursed by mileage up to maximum of 2nd class rail equivalent). The Union cannot pay for supply cover – costs are eligible for funding from professional development funding, which is delegated to schools.

THE NUT's CPD PROGRAMME
MEETING TEACHERS' LEARNING AND CAREER NEEDS

