

SUPPLY TEACHERS
WITHIN 1½ HOUR JOURNEY TO/FROM SOUTHAMPTON
(WHO HAVE NOT ATTENDED THIS COURSE PREVIOUSLY)

ARE INVITED TO APPLY FOR THE
TWO-DAY, NON-RESIDENTIAL, SEMINAR
(9.30 a.m. to 4.00 p.m. on both days)

‘MANAGING CLASSROOM BEHAVIOUR’

CODE: TF/97R

TUTOR: Pete Hrekow – Dreyfus Training

FOR: Supply teachers (teaching regularly – full-time or part-time) in all phases and key stages, within 1½ hours journey to/from venue. Attendance is expected on both days.

“I’m really keen to get back in the classroom, to try out some of the strategies”.

“Confidence is so important in teaching – this course has increased my confidence in my practice.”

VENUE: Southampton (venue TBC)

DATES: Thursday, 31 May and Friday, 1 June 2012

AIMS:

- To review and extend effective approaches to classroom behaviour management that suit the special circumstances that supply teachers face.
- To enable supply teachers to review, exchange, update and learn new ‘behaviour’ strategies.
- To acknowledge that there are no universal ‘magic tips’ (although there will be a few) and the need to establish rapport/relationships.

COST: FREE to NUT members; £150 (others), including VAT, lunch and refreshments on both days.

No travel expenses can be claimed. Accommodation cannot be provided.
