

TEACHERS AND OTHER PRACTITIONERS IN THE NURSERY/EARLY YEARS/YEAR 1

ARE INVITED TO APPLY FOR

‘COME RAIN, COME SHINE’ OUTDOOR PLAY IN THE FOUNDATION STAGE (TF/99)

TUTORS: Sally Atkinson and Gill Roberts from Peterborough Early Years and Childcare Team

VENUE: Stoke Rochford Hall, NUT's Education and Training Centre,
nr Grantham, Lincolnshire NG33 5EJ

DATES: Tuesday, 15 and Wednesday, 16 May 2012

DETAILS: The course starts at 11.00 a.m. on Tuesday, 15 May and finishes at 2.45 p.m. on (please read Wednesday, 16 May and is fully residential. carefully)

Note: This course will be repeated TF/100 in Cardiff, Wales on 24/25 May and applicants are advised to attend the most local venue to their residence.

AIMS: The course will focus on:

- Placing children at the centre of outdoor provision with reference to the EYFS.
- How to make full use of your own environment through reflection and discussion.
- The importance of risk and challenge.
- Exploring the world around us through first hand experiences.

Please bring: EYFS documents and outdoor clothing (waterproofs and stout footwear) – we go ‘outside’ whatever the weather.

COST: £50 to NUT members; £125 (others). Includes VAT, meals and refreshments and one night's dinner plus B&B.

NUT members will be able to claim their travel expenses (receipts must be provided except for car travel which will be reimbursed by mileage). The Union cannot pay for supply cover – costs are eligible for funding from professional development (CPD) funding, which is delegated to schools.

THE NUT'S CPD PROGRAMME
MEETING TEACHERS' LEARNING AND CAREER NEEDS

