

RACISM on the rise EDUCATION is the answer

“It is vital that educators value and incorporate the cultural, linguistic, ethnic and religious identities of their pupils in the curriculum and teaching.” Aminul Hoque, Goldsmiths University

“We need to focus the whole system around the education of our children; if we don’t, they simply will not reach their potential, which really could mean wasted lives. Education is not a business; it’s a matter of life and rights.” Benjamin Zephaniah – Poet, writer and musician

“There is continued evidence of discrimination in the labour market, and of stereotypes regarding the skills and competences of black and minority ethnic people living in Britain.” Debbie Weekes-Bernard, Runnymede Trust

“Show Racism the Red Card believes it is imperative to encourage young people to think critically about racism, stereotypes and information they receive, from the media and other sources.”
Ged Grebby, Show Racism the Red Card

Get involved with anti-racist campaigns in your area.

Share your ideas about anti-racist education at equality@nut.org.uk

www.teachers.org.uk

Challenging contemporary racisms

Visit

www.theredcard.org
to order copies for
your school

Population and migration:
for older primary and secondary pupils

Visit

<http://sertucresources.files.wordpress.com/2014/07/sertuc-myths-2014.pdf>

Education pack: for older primary and secondary pupils

Visit

www.theredcard.org
to order copies for
your school

Teaching resources on immigration, children and families

BBC Schools – challenging negative attitudes towards immigrants, for secondary pupils.
<http://tinyurl.com/nehskb7>

British Council – a lesson on immigration for 12 year olds plus.
<http://tinyurl.com/qbm274e>

British Red Cross – educational resource about migration and development.
<http://tinyurl.com/k5cgsdo>

Geographical Association – four activities on immigration for primary and secondary pupils. <http://tinyurl.com/kobhx86>

Show Racism the Red Card – a safe place: combatting myths against asylum seekers.
www.theredcard.org

Unison – myths about migrant workers for secondary pupils.
<http://tinyurl.com/kjy eo26>

Unison – a flyer to counter some of the myths about immigration for older secondary pupils.
<http://tinyurl.com/k9odk2u>

Teaching resources about the victims of Nazi persecution

Mosaic: Who was persecuted, How and Why? The NUT and the Holocaust Educational Trust together produce online teaching materials exploring the persecution by the Nazis.

www.teachers.org.uk

